2. DEMISE

- 2.1 The Landlord demises the Premises to the Tenant for the Term at the Monthly Rent, subject to and with the benefit of this Agreement. The Tenant shall have exclusive possession of the Premises for the duration of the Term.
- 2.2 The demise of the Premises under clause 2.1 does not include any right of the Tenant to use the roof, exterior walls, structural parts, service media or airspace of the Property except as expressly granted by this Agreement.
- 2.3 The Tenant shall have the following non-exclusive rights for the duration of the Term:

3. RENT

- 3.1 The Tenant shall pay the Monthly Rent to the Landlord in advance on the 25th day of the prior calendar month by direct debit or standing order to the UK bank account specified by the Landlord from time to time, in each case whether formally demanded or not, without any deduction and together with such VAT as may be chargeable (the Tenant to bear all costs of transfer). The Monthly Rent is inclusive of the Services (including utilities) provided under Part B of this Agreement but is exclusive of Business Rates (which are payable separately under clause B2).

- 3.2 On the Initial Period End Date and thereafter on each anniversary of that date (if relevant), the Monthly Rent shall increase by the greater of 5% and the CPI Percentage. The Landlord shall give the Tenant not less than 30 days' written notice of any such increase, specifying the revised Monthly Rent and the basis of calculation (including the CPI figures used).
- 3.3 The Landlord may, acting reasonably, increase the Monthly Rent by a proportionate amount to account for significant increases in the cost of providing the Services (including utilities) to the Property, referenced to their cost on the date of this Agreement. The Landlord shall provide reasonable evidence of such cost increases on request.
- 3.4 If a Monthly Rent payment is not paid by direct debit or standing order, the Landlord shall charge an administration fee of £35 plus VAT per month to reflect additional costs of administration.
- 3.5 In the event that any payment due under this Agreement (including Monthly Rent or Rates Payments) is not paid on the due date, the Landlord may serve a notice of non-payment on the Tenant and charge a fee of £100 plus VAT per week while any sum remains overdue and unpaid. - 5. INSURANCE
- 5.1 The Landlord shall ensure or procure that that throughout the Term a building insurance policy is in place for the Property covering the usual commercial risks (including fire, flood, storm, subsidence and terrorism) at full replacement value (but not including contents insurance or insurance of the Tenant's property). The Landlord shall, on reasonable request, provide the Tenant with a summary of the building insurance cover.
- 5.2 The Tenant shall obtain and maintain throughout the Term, at its own cost, appropriate public liability, employer's liability and contents insurance as is mandated by law or as appropriate.
- 5.3 The Tenant shall provide evidence of the insurance policies required under clause 5.2 (including the certificate of insurance and a summary of the principal terms) within 10 Business Days of the Landlord's and/or Superior Landlord's reasonable request.
- 5.4 The Tenant shall not do or permit to be done anything which may invalidate or increase the premium payable in respect of any insurance effected by the Landlord or Superior Landlord in respect of the Property. If any act or omission of the Tenant results in an increase in the Landlord's or the Superior Landlords' insurance premium, the Tenant shall reimburse the Landlord and/or Superior Landlord for such increase on demand.
- 6. DEPOSIT
- 6.1 The Tenant shall pay the Deposit and the First Month's Rent and Rates Payment on entering into this Agreement in consideration for reserving the Memberships and Premises and the Landlord not continuing to market the Premises.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Landlord shall not be entitled to make any new claim against the Deposit Balance after the date falling 60 days after the Termination Date.
- 6.7 A breach of a material obligation of this clause 6 by the Tenant is to be treated as a breach of obligation under this Agreement and entitles the Landlord to exercise its rights to terminate, subject to the Landlord providing written notice and giving the Tenant a further ten (10) days to comply.
- 6.8 The liability of the Tenant is not limited to the amount of the Deposit.

7. LANDLORD'S COVENANTS

- 7.1 The Landlord covenants with the Tenant:

- 7.2 If the Premises are damaged or destroyed by an insured risk so as to be unfit for occupation and use by the Tenant, and provided such damage was not caused by the act or default of the Tenant, the Monthly Rent (or a fair proportion thereof according to the nature and extent of the damage) shall cease to be payable from the date of the damage until the earlier of: (a) the date on which the Premises are again fit for occupation and use; and (b) the date falling 6 months after the date of the damage (after which period either party may terminate this Agreement by written notice).
- 7.3 The Landlord shall not disclose to a third party any Confidential Information relating to or obtained from the Tenant.
- 7.4 The Landlord confirms that:
- 7.4.1 it has the right to enter into and grant this lease;
- 7.4.2 so far as the Landlord is aware, the Property complies in all material respects with applicable building regulations, fire safety regulations and health and safety legislation as at the date of this Agreement.
- 7.5 The Landlord shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any failure or interruption of any services due to the carrying out of essential repair and servicing (provided the Landlord uses reasonable endeavours to minimise disruption and provides advance notice where practicable) and/or due to any act or omission that is beyond the reasonable control of the Landlord.

- 10.2.1 immediately on the Landlord's written notice to the Tenant in the event of:
- (a) a material or persistent breach of the Tenant's obligations, subject to the Tenant having failed to remedy such breach within seven (7) calendar days (or such longer period as is reasonable having regard to the nature of the breach) following written notice by the Landlord specifying the breach and the remedy required, where such breach is, in the Landlord's reasonable opinion, remediable;

- (c) the Landlord becoming aware that the Tenant or any of its employees, workers, officers, directors, agents, contractors, visitors and/or invitees has carried out any illegal activity at or from the Property;
- 10.2.2 subject to clause 10.5, at the expiry of a Termination Notice served by either party, provided that such notice expires on a Break Date, the Initial Period End

Date, or an anniversary of the Initial Period End Date (if relevant), with not less than the Notice Period; and

- 10.5 A Termination Notice served by the Tenant shall be of no effect if, at the Break Date or termination date stated in the Termination Notice: (a) the Tenant has not paid any sums due under this Agreement at the Break Date / Termination Date; or (b) there is a subsisting material breach by the Tenant of any term of this Agreement.
- 10.6 On termination, the Term shall immediately end.
- 10.7 No refund of Monthly Rent, including in respect of amounts paid for future periods, shall be paid by the Landlord in the event of termination or expiry for any reason other than the Landlord's material and irremediable breach or termination under clause 10.4.
- 11. EXCLUSION OF SECURITY OF TENURE

- 12.2 The Tenant occupies the Premises and makes use of the Common Parts entirely at its own risk. As the nature of a multi-occupied building means that there are other tenants and/or their invitees present, the Tenant is required to obtain and maintain its own insurance as set out in clause 5.2. The Landlord shall not be liable for any loss, theft and/or damage in respect of the Tenant's Contents other than when such loss,

It is agreed as follows:

B1. SCOPE OF SERVICES

B1.1 The Landlord shall, subject to clause B1.3, provide the Services to the Tenant in respect of the Property and the Premises, comprising:

- (a) use reasonable endeavours to provide or procure heating, internet, lighting, electricity, water, gas and suitable lavatory facilities from time to time;
- (b) cleaning, maintaining and securing, in each case to a reasonable standard, the Property and the Premises;
- (c) the management of Business Rates on behalf of the Tenant in accordance with clause B2; and
- (d) administration relating to the Memberships set out in clause B3.

B1.2 The Landlord shall provide all Services in accordance with good industry practice, using appropriately qualified and experienced staff, at a level to be expected from a provider of such services.

B1.3 The Landlord shall not be liable to the Tenant in respect of any failure or interruption of any of the Services due to the carrying out of essential repair and servicing (provided the Landlord uses reasonable endeavours to minimise disruption and provides advance notice where practicable) and/or due to any act or omission that is beyond the reasonable control of the Landlord.

B2. BUSINESS RATES

B2.1 The Tenant is liable for and shall pay all Business Rates on the Premises as determined by the relevant billing authority. The Tenant acknowledges that, as the occupier with exclusive possession of the Premises under this Agreement, it is the rateable occupier of the Premises for the purposes of non-domestic rating legislation.

B2.2 The Tenant shall also pay to the Landlord, as a separate charge on demand, a fair and reasonable proportion (as determined by the Landlord acting reasonably) of the Business Rates attributable to the Common Parts at the Property, inclusive of any costs properly incurred by the Landlord in managing the Business Rates liability.

B2.3 Where the Property or any part of it is single assessed or not assessed/waiting assessment, the Tenant is liable to pay a fair and reasonable proportion (as determined by the Landlord acting reasonably) of the Business Rates attributable to the Tenant's proportionate share of the Property.

B2.4 The Tenant hereby appoints the Landlord as its agent for the duration of the Term (and surviving termination of this Agreement insofar as any rates liabilities or rebates remain outstanding) to manage the Business Rates payable on the Tenant's behalf, including but not limited to:

- (a) employing a rating agent of the Landlord's choosing to manage the Business Rates liability;
- (b) liaising with the relevant billing authority and the Valuation Office Agency in relation to the Premises;
- (c) making payments of Business Rates to the relevant billing authority on behalf of the Tenant;
- (d) applying for and recovering any reductions, reliefs, exemptions or rebates for which the Tenant's occupation of the Premises may qualify (and the Landlord shall account to the Tenant for any such reliefs or rebates received less any fees properly incurred in doing so);
- (e) challenging or appealing any rating assessment or rating list entry in respect of the Premises where the Landlord considers it reasonable to do so; and

- (f) providing the Tenant with a written statement of Business Rates paid on the Tenant's behalf not less than annually, together with reasonable supporting evidence.

B2.5 The Tenant shall pay the Rates Payment to the Landlord, in advance on the same date as the Monthly Rent falls due, as notified by the Landlord from time to time. The Landlord shall reconcile the Rates Payments against the actual Business Rates liability at least annually and shall promptly refund any overpayment or invoice the Tenant for any underpayment, which shall be paid by the Tenant within 5 Business Days of demand, in each case taking into account any fees properly incurred by the Landlord.

B2.6 Business rates fluctuate and the amount payable may go up or down during the Term due to several reasons including, but not limited to, government policy or legislative changes, revaluations and changes to reliefs. Should the basis of assessment for Business Rates change during the Term (including any reclassification of the Premises as part of a single hereditament), the Tenant acknowledges that the Landlord is entitled to charge the Tenant for a fair proportion of the Business Rates levied against the Property.

B2.7 To ensure that no more than the correct liability associated with the Tenant's occupation is paid, the Tenant shall:

- (a) provide any reasonable information the Landlord or the relevant billing authority requests in connection with Business Rates;
- (b) sign any relevant documentation in respect of Business Rates within 5 Business Days of a request from the Landlord including providing direct authorisation to any rating agent employed by the Landlord;
- (c) forward all correspondence received in respect of Business Rates to the Landlord within 2 Business Days of receipt; and
- (d) co-operate with the Landlord in supporting the separate assessment of the Premises as an individual hereditament for rating purposes, including (without limitation) providing evidence of its exclusive occupation of the Premises.

B2.8 This clause B2 shall survive termination of this Agreement.

B3. MEMBERSHIPS

B3.1 Subject to the Tenant's compliance with its obligations under this Agreement, the Landlord grants the Tenant the number of Memberships set out in paragraph 9 of the Contract Details.

B4. UTILITIES

B4.1 The cost of utilities consumed at the Property (including electricity, gas, water and internet) is included in the Monthly Rent. The Tenant shall use utilities reasonably and responsibly.

B5. DATA PROTECTION

Controller and Scope of Processing

B5.1 The Landlord is an independent data controller for the purposes of the UK GDPR and the DPA 2018 in respect of the personal data it processes in connection with this Agreement.

B5.2 The Landlord processes Tenant Personal Data relating to the Data Subjects. The categories of personal data processed include: names, email addresses, postal addresses, telephone numbers, photographs, job titles, access card identifiers, building access times and dates, CCTV footage, and utilisation data.

Lawful Basis

B5.3 The Landlord processes Tenant Personal Data on the following lawful bases:

- (a) performance of this Agreement (Article 6(1)(b) UK GDPR): processing names, contact details, job titles and access credentials as necessary for the administration and performance of this Agreement, including issuing Memberships, managing access to the Property, and providing the Services;
- (b) legitimate interests (Article 6(1)(f) UK GDPR): processing access logs, utilisation data, and CCTV footage for the purposes of: (i) security of the Property and the safety of persons within it; (ii) monitoring and managing access to and utilisation of the Property; (iii) day-to-day management of the Property; (iv) effective resolution of disputes; and (v) compliance with the Landlord's obligations to its own landlords and insurers. The Landlord has carried out a legitimate interests assessment in respect of such processing and considers that the processing is necessary for these purposes and that the interests of the Landlord are not overridden by the interests, rights and freedoms of the Data Subjects; and

- (c) legal obligation (Article 6(1)(c) UK GDPR): processing as required to comply with applicable law, regulation or lawful request by a public authority.

Marketing Communications

B5.4 The Landlord may send Data Subjects service-related communications (including building notices, service updates and operational information) as necessary for the performance of this Agreement. The Landlord will only send promotional or marketing communications to Data Subjects who have given their prior opt-in consent in accordance with the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003. Data Subjects may withdraw such consent at any time by emailing support@techspace.co or using the unsubscribe mechanism in any marketing communication.

CCTV

B5.5 The Landlord operates CCTV systems for the purposes of crime prevention and detection, security, health and safety, and day-to-day management. The Landlord shall ensure that appropriate signage is displayed to notify individuals of the presence of CCTV. CCTV footage shall be retained for no longer than 30 days unless required for the investigation of a specific incident, in which case it shall be retained only for so long as is necessary for that purpose.

Data Sharing and International Transfers

B5.6 The Landlord may disclose Tenant Personal Data to:

- (a) its agents and sub-processors who process personal data on its behalf, provided that the Landlord has entered into a written data processing agreement with each such agent or sub-processor in compliance with Article 28 of the UK GDPR; and
- (b) third parties where required by law, regulation, or lawful request by a public authority.

B5.7 The Landlord shall not transfer Tenant Personal Data outside the United Kingdom unless: (a) the transfer is to a country or territory subject to a UK adequacy decision; or (b) appropriate safeguards are in place in accordance with Chapter V of the UK GDPR (such as the International Data Transfer Agreement or UK Addendum to the EU Standard Contractual Clauses). The Landlord shall inform the Tenant on request of any international transfers and the safeguards in place.

Data Retention

B5.8 The Landlord shall retain Tenant Personal Data only for so long as is necessary for the purposes for which it was collected or as required by applicable law. In any event, the Landlord shall delete or anonymise Tenant Personal Data (other than CCTV footage, which is subject to clause B5.5) within 12 months of the Termination Date, unless retention is necessary for the purpose of any outstanding claim or legal obligation.

Data Subject Rights

B5.9 The Landlord shall maintain appropriate procedures to enable Data Subjects to exercise their rights under the UK GDPR, including the rights of access, rectification, erasure, restriction of processing, data portability and objection. Requests may be submitted to the Landlord at privacy@techspace.co (or such other address as the Landlord may notify from time to time). The Landlord shall respond to any such request within the timescales required by the UK GDPR.

Data Security and Breach Notification

B5.10 The Landlord shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect Tenant Personal Data against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, having regard to the nature of the data and the harm that might result from such processing or loss.

B5.11 In the event of a personal data breach (as defined in the UK GDPR) affecting Tenant Personal Data, the Landlord shall: (a) notify the Tenant without undue delay (and in any event within 72 hours of becoming aware of the breach) where the breach is likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of Data

Subjects; (b) provide the Tenant with reasonable information about the breach, including the categories and approximate number of Data Subjects affected and the measures taken or proposed to be taken to address the breach; and (c) notify the Information Commissioner's Office where required by the UK GDPR.

Utilisation Data Sharing

B5.12 The Landlord may, in accordance with its policies from time to time, share aggregated and/or anonymised utilisation data relating to the Tenant's use of the Property with the Tenant for the purpose of demonstrating how the Tenant and its employees are utilising the Property. The Landlord may also share non-anonymised utilisation data with the Tenant where necessary for the performance of this Agreement.

Tenant's Obligations

B5.13 The Tenant shall: (a) treat the personal data of the Landlord's members, contractors, suppliers, employees and guests as confidential and shall not process such data except as necessary for the performance of this Agreement; (b) not use the Landlord's services or systems to collect any personal data of other tenants, members, contractors, suppliers, employees or guests, or to send unsolicited communications; (c) ensure that Data Subjects whose personal data is provided to the Landlord have been informed that their personal data will be shared with the Landlord for the purposes described in this clause B5; and (d) promptly notify the Landlord of any changes to Tenant Personal Data or of any Data Subject requests or complaints received by the Tenant that relate to the Landlord's processing.

Privacy Notice

B5.14 The Landlord shall maintain and make available to the Tenant and Data Subjects a privacy notice which complies with Articles 13 and 14 of the UK GDPR. The current privacy notice is available at www.techspace.co/privacy or on request.

B6. LANDLORD'S LIABILITY FOR SERVICES

B6.1 The Tenant acknowledges that it shall have the right to use the Common Parts, meeting rooms, breakout spaces and other shared facilities in common with the Landlord, other tenants and all others authorised by the Landlord, and that the Landlord is not responsible for any loss or damage arising from third-party use of such facilities (subject always to the Landlord's obligation under clause 7.1.2).

PART C – GENERAL PROVISIONS

the proceeds of crime for the purposes of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002; and

- (c) it shall provide to the Landlord promptly on request such information regarding its identity, beneficial ownership and source of funds as the Landlord may reasonably require for the purposes of compliance with its obligations under the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (as amended).

C2.2 A breach of any warranty in clause C2.1 shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement entitling the Landlord to terminate immediately by written notice.

C3. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

C3.1 The Techspace IP is and shall remain the property of the Landlord or its Group.

SCHEDULE 1 – IMPORTANT NOTICE

IMPORTANT NOTICE

You are being offered a lease without security of tenure. Do not commit yourself to the lease unless you have read this message carefully and have discussed it with a professional adviser.

Business tenants normally have security of tenure – the right to stay in their business premises when the lease ends.

If you commit yourself to the lease you will be giving up these important legal rights.

You will have no right to stay in the premises when the lease ends.

Unless the landlord chooses to offer you another lease, you will need to leave the premises.

You will be unable to claim compensation for the loss of your business premises, unless the lease specifically gives you this right.

If the landlord offers you another lease, you will have no right to ask the court to fix the rent.

It is therefore important to get professional advice – from a qualified surveyor, lawyer or accountant – before agreeing to give up these rights.

If you want to ensure that you can stay in the same business premises when the lease ends, you should consult your adviser about another form of lease that does not exclude the protection of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954.

If you receive this notice at least 14 days before committing yourself to the lease, you will need to sign a simple declaration that you have received this notice and have accepted its consequences, before the agreement is entered into.

But if you do not receive at least 14 days' notice, you will need to sign a "statutory" declaration. To do so, you will need to visit an independent solicitor (or someone else empowered to administer oaths).

Unless there is a special reason for committing yourself to the lease sooner, you may want to ask the landlord to let you have at least 14 days to consider whether you wish to give up your statutory rights. If you then decided to go ahead with the agreement to exclude the protection of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954, you would only need to make a simple declaration, and so you would not need to make a separate visit to an independent solicitor.
